

JOIN US FOR THIS FREE Zoom COMMUNITY EVENT

(Partially supported by a grant from the InterCommunity Health Network-CCO, of Samaritan Health Services in Linn, Benton and Lincoln Counties)

Event and Presenters

Symptomatic.me Podcast Episode 2: Rebecca's Story 'Symptoms for Half My Life'

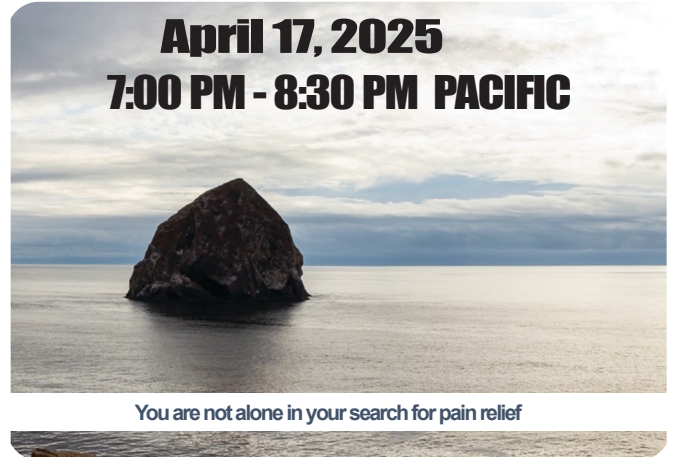

David Clarke MD

President of the Association for the Treatment of Neuroplastic Symptoms

The Story Behind the Symptoms:

Rebecca endured years of debilitating symptoms, from gut issues to shoulder pain. She shares how she uncovered the role of childhood stress and suppressed emotions--and found lasting relief.

Join the Alliance Team and help us identify the Unique Aspects of her story for our curated archive!

Zoom Link:

<https://tinyurl.com/Pain2022>

For help connecting to a session via Zoom, call 541.224.8378 or scan the QR code.

Stories from past events are accessible at www.painsciencelifestories.org. The website has multiple fully curated features in the Resource Table: Unique Aspects; Key Ideas; Summary; Transcript; and a Link to play each video story to assist you in searching for content that makes sense to you.

We are a local collaboration of healthcare workers and individuals who have learned the self-care pain approach. Welcome new members with similar interests. See the Welcome page on the website for upcoming events, and the Members page to join us. Email: opsa@painsciencelifestories.com and a member will reply to your questions.